Brief Summary	The BVA degree in Visual Arts Program culminates in the Annual Display (RANGSPARSH)* of the works of the outgoing batch of students. It is a much awaited event, marked by days and weeks of labor, Anxiety, excitement and effort by students and faculty alike. The annual display showcases the Struggles and achievements of the students and documents the journey of their artistic and Intellectual arrivals. The catalog that sometimes accompanies the display is a record of the Students creative and research outputs, and artist statements. This year was unprecedented in the world. COVID-19 descended upon us with a brutal Suddenness that has left us without answers or directions. We were stopped in our tracks, we are increasingly left to live and function with unending uncertainties. For the past four months. COVID-19 has overruled everything under the sun. All our plans, dreams and desires have been put on hold. During this time, we have come to realize that Cyber space is the only place in which we can continue to converse and function safely with each other. So students and faculty of the Department of Fine Arts have continued to communicate and reach out to each other through online ports, and have stepped outside and beyond conventional working and conversation habits. It was the idea of our Principal, Dr. Mrs. D.P. Deshpande and H.O.D Smt. A. J. Sonavane madam to bring out an e-catalog to showcase some of the best works of our students. The disappointment of not having the opportunity to have the traditional Annual Display was (and is) real. For all of us. But that students have chosen to channel their disappointment and instead work towards showcasing their works via the virtual medium was admirable. This e-catalog was therefore very special to all of us. It speaks to the tenacity of our students, to their enthusiasm and hard work in the face of disappointment, and their ability to quickly adapt to a changed reality. It is a testimony

	to their spirit and resilience that we admire so much. And the memory of which will always remain with us, however far they go. Following was the layout of this Virtual Exhibition cum Display: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Welcome Note was Given by Dr. Mrs. Nilam Bokil (Vice-principal of SMRK BK AK Mahila Mahavidyalaya) > Guest of Honor’s Introduction was given by Dr. Mrs. D.P.
