Session 1- Conservation of Water as a Resource

Resource Person- Dr. Rajendra Singh

Dr. Savita Borse convener of the webinar gave a brief introduction of the resource person Dr. Rajendra Singh, waterman of India.

Dr. Singh in his discourse emphasized on the importance of water which can be possible by educating people through various schemes and programs. He also suggested to take rightful steps to save the rivers, lakes and ponds. He mentioned that every step in this direction of enhancing the eco-balance is the need of the hour. There is an urgent need to opt for more sustainable approaches from production to consumption. Responsible 'consumption and production' is about promoting energy efficiency, sustainable infrastructure, providing access to basic services, green employment and a better quality of life for all.

Mrs. Trupti Dhoka concluded the session with question and answer asked by the participants and expressed the vote of thanks for the session.

Session 2- Green Cover

Resource Person- Dr. Vinod Kumar Mohan

Ms. Pradnya Abhyankar, Co-convener of the webinar and In-charge of Home Science Association Nashik (HAN) gave a brief introduction of the resource person Dr. Vinod Kumar Mohan.

The Chief Guest Mr Vishwas Thakur, founder chairman of Vishwas Co-operative Bank Ltd, Nashik then released the e-proceedings of the seminar. Prof. Jayant Bhatambrekar introduced the Chief Guest Mr Vishwas Thakur in a greater detail and then the Chief Guest proceeded to give his address in which he spoke about the co-operative movement, focussing especially on co-operative banking. This was followed by the presidential address by Sir Dr M S Gosavi. This inaugural function ended with a vote of thanks by Professor Dr Mahendra Dhondagepatil, Head of the Department of Accountancy.

SEMINAR:

The core part of the whole seminar was divided into three technical sessions.

The first session had for theme 'Repercussions of the Pandemic on the Indian IT Industry.' The session was co-ordinated by Mrs Vaishali Gaikwad and was chaired by Mr Akshay Deshpande, a budding entrepreneur in 3-D printing technology. Dr Mrs Aurangabadkar was the first presenter who spoke in detail about the service sector and Indian policies about it. Vice Principal Prof Mrs Kavita Patil formally introduced Mr Akshay Deshpande, who then spoke on the session's theme focussing on both the negative and positive effects of the pandemic on the Indian IT industry. The talk ended with a question-answer session.

The second session was themed 'Aftermath of Pandemic on Entrepreneurs' and was co-ordinated by Mrs Vaishali Chaudhary, who introduced the chief speaker of the session Mr Santosh Mandlecha, former Chairman, Maharashtra Chamber of Commerce. In his speech, Mr Mandlecha spoke extensively on effects of the pandemic on manufacturing, services, transport, food, health, entertainment, technology, and many other aspects of the industry, and also took a review of the measures taken by the government through creating new infrastructures. The talk was followed by a question-answer session, and the session ended with Dr Mrs Sunita Ranate of Bytco College, Nashikroad presenting a paper on the effects of the pandemic on the
