Brief Summary of the Event:

The Career Guidance and Placement Cell (C.G.P.C.) of the college successfully organized a campus interview event for final-year undergraduate and postgraduate students on Thursday, 13 March 2025. The objective of the event was to provide students with an opportunity to interact with potential employers from various industries and explore career prospects. The 13 reputed firms, including Chartered Accountancy firms, Architecture and Design studios, Taxation and Management Consultants, Educational Institutions, and Health and Wellness experts participated in the event. A total of 80 students actively took part in the interviews, aiming to secure positions in their respective fields.

The event began with a warm welcome address delivered by Prin. Dr. Mrs. Sandhya Khedekar. Madam felicitated the resource persons and company representatives. She highlighted the importance of campus interviews in bridging the gap between Academics and Industry by offering students real-world exposure.

Several prestigious Chartered Accountancy firms, including Bagrecha Rathi & Company, Patil Hiran and Jajao, S. S. Burad and Company, Ulhas Borse and Company, and Jain Deshmukh and Company conducted the interviews. These firms provided aspiring finance professionals with a chance to be evaluated by experienced Chartered Accountants, offering them potential roles in auditing, taxation, and financial management.

Additionally, Mr. Dnyaneshwar Jagtap, representing S. J. Taxation & Management firm and the Chairman of Nashik District Housing Societies and Apartment Cooperative Federation Ltd., was present to assess candidates interested in taxation and cooperative management. His insights and expertise provided students with valuable industry knowledge. The leading architects and interior designers, including Mr. Gaurav Biyani from G. K. Architects & Interiors, Ar. Makarand Chindhade from Locus Design Studio, and ID. Mrs. Mona Pabari from The Studio Envisage conducted interviews of the students having Interior Design and Decoration background. These professionals interviewed students aspiring for careers in architecture and interior design, evaluating their creativity, technical skills, and design knowledge.

The event extended its scope to the health and wellness sector with the participation of Mrs. Pooja Shirbhate, a renowned dietician. She offered insights into career opportunities in nutrition and wellness, assessing students' knowledge of dietary plans and health management. The education sector was represented by Ms. Deepali Wagh, HR representative from Global International School, and Ikshana Academy Private Ltd., who interviewed students interested in teaching and academic management roles.

Throughout the day, students confidently presented their skills and knowledge, making the most of the opportunity to interact with industry experts. The interviews were conducted in a professional and organized manner, allowing students to gain practical experience in facing corporate-style interviews.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Savita Borse, who expressed gratitude to the participating firms, resource persons, and the organizing team for their efforts. She also appreciated the students for their enthusiastic participation. Mrs. Praneta Nikumbh anchored the program, ensuring smooth coordination and flow of events.

Overall, the campus interviews proved to be a valuable platform for students to gain industry exposure, enhance their interview skills, and potentially secure job offers. The event successfully bridged the gap between academia and industry, leaving the students motivated and optimistic about their career prospects.

During the campus interviews held on 13th March 2025, 36 students were shortlisted and offered job by various firms.
