Participants expressed gratitude towards organizers for providing the opportunity to present their research papers. Judges appreciated the efforts of young researchers and also guided them for future.

Dr.Hema Burung said that research pushes students beyond textbooks, helping them explore topics in greater detail and understand concepts more thoroughly. When students analyze sources, compare viewpoints, and form conclusions, they strengthen their ability to think logically and independently.

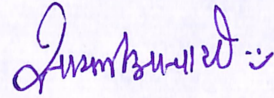

Dr. Mangesh Bhavsar said that research allows students to explore new ideas, think creatively, and even contribute original insights. Writing reports, presenting findings, and discussing ideas help students express themselves clearly and confidently.

Dr.Sayali Acharya proposed vote of thanks.
